Dear Conferees,

Cornfields...flat...middle of nowhere! Yes, you've found us.... WELCOME to Taylor! WOW, we are so excited that you are finally here! Our prayer for you is that Youth Conference will be an incredible time of challenge, growth and fun. Our cabinet has been working hard since September preparing for your arrival.

Through this weekend's sessions, discussion groups, talking with new friends and Taylor students, we pray that you can see the joy and reality of knowing Christ and find a burden to stand for Him everyday!

We would love to meet and talk with you this weekend. Please take advantage of any opportunity to interact with Taylor students, the cabinet and us.

Have a great weekend and press on!

In His Grip,

Mary CARRIE Mike

❖ JOE COFFEY is committed to energetically serving youth. In the last ten years, Joe has taken over 300 high schoolers to the Dominican Republic to help establish two orphanages. Since graduating from Taylor in 1982, Joe earned his MA from Columbia Seminary and worked with youth in Orlando, Florida; Charlotte, North Carolina; and now in Hudson, Ohio, where he is associate pastor of Hudson Community Chapel. He speaks at numerous events throughout the U.S. He also enjoys spending time with his wife and three children.

❖ BIG TENT REVIVAL is a serious band with far-reaching goals and rock solid conviction. At Saturday's concert the band will weave diverse musical influences - edgy blues and rock, '60's pop and acoustic story songs - into its own unique sound. The lead singer of BIG TENT REVIVAL says they hope to "start a revival in music and technology, and that Christians can reclaim the land. That's the kind of spirit this band is made of."

PHIL COLLINS MUSIC CENTER, RECITAL HALL

Phil Collins, a 1982 Taylor grad, received his MA in Christian Education at Trinity Evangelical Seminary. He worked with Youth For Christ for six years and is now a youth pastor at Castlevew Baptist Church in Indianapolis.

In the first session he will discuss "Ethics in Youth Ministry." The topics for the next two sessions are "How to Change a Student's Beliefs" and "Teaching so They'll Hear."

DONNA DOWNS MUSIC CENTER 149

WORKSHOP: "Self-Disclosure: Relinquishing the Relic"

Donna Downs, full-time wife and proud mother of two sons, holds degrees in English and Speech Communication from Indiana University and Ball State University. For the past nine years she has instructed at both the Upland and Fort Wayne campuses of Taylor University. Donna is currently working on a doctorate in Education at Ball State University.

In her workshop, Donna will discuss the art of self-disclosure, determining what it is and how to use it effectively to interpersonally interact with others in all walks of life.

FAYE CHECHOWICH MUSIC CENTER 150

WORKSHOP: "the neXt generation"

Faye Chechowich is a graduate of Taylor. She worked with Youth for Christ in Colorado and in South Africa for 13 years. Faye has a MRE from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and is a doctoral candidate in Educational Psychology at Indiana University. Faye has worked as a professor of Christian Education at Taylor since 1989.

During her seminar, Faye will lead participants to explore ways teens are being described by culture watchers and discuss implications for those in ministry.

WORKSHOPS

Everyone will attend two workshops on Saturday afternoon.
